Love to Auntie. Thanks for photos. Rec. the pamphlet. Sent you P.O. order for $20.

Yours Moanni.

which was given to that Young the Herald reporter who has been round the world with Grant. Young however is not considered among newspaper men a reputable person and though most of the city and some of the country press were invited only the Argonaut, the Chronicle and one or two small papers were represented. Young was at one time on the staff of the New York Tribune and was turned off. I think it was palming off something taken from a book as his own. Saw Lilly [illegible]; says she is getting on all right and likes the school.

She goes home every Friday eve. I should have sent for her to spend Sat. and Sabbath
but for that.

We are going to have
the Church painted.
The ladies society are going to do it. Mr. Brier dont approve of it and said it was a states prison offence to take the money intended for a parsonage for any other use, but as we had earned the money and were not an incorporated society, and as every one but the B's wished to do it, we thought we would run the risk!!

I will
do Mrs.
B. the
justice
to say
that after
saying
that she did not approve
of it –
she gave
in quietly.

Is there any prospect of Emma's coming
